Travelling Exhibition Information 2015

The Peace Museum has five travelling exhibitions that are available for loan by an organisation/individual for the purposes of a short-term display. We do not charge for this service; however the borrower must cover postage and packaging costs. In addition, as the Museum is a charity, a donation which would cover staff time in arranging the loan would be most welcomed.

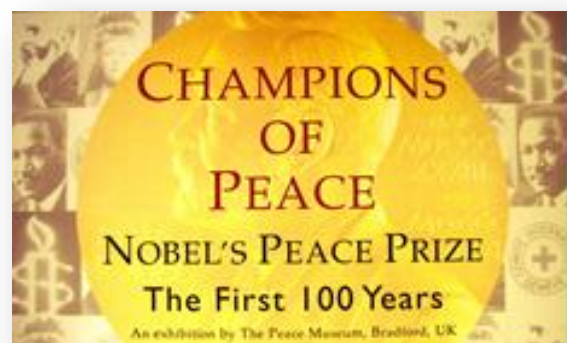

To discuss the loaning of our travelling exhibitions, please contact The Peace Museum Team by email at info@peacemuseum.org.uk.

The Exhibitions are as follows:

'Champions of Peace': Nobel's Peace Prize: The First 100 Years

A critical appreciation of how the prize came about, including information on the Nobel Peace prize winners and the controversies surrounding them.

33 A2 size panels.

THE PEACE MUSEUM

'Leeds City of Peace'

This looks at the past and present peace activities in the city of Leeds.

Seven A2 size panels.

'A Vision Shared': Art from the History of the Peace Movement

An artistic and informative overview of peace challenges and peace movements over the last century.

Forty eight A3 panels.

A5 version also available.

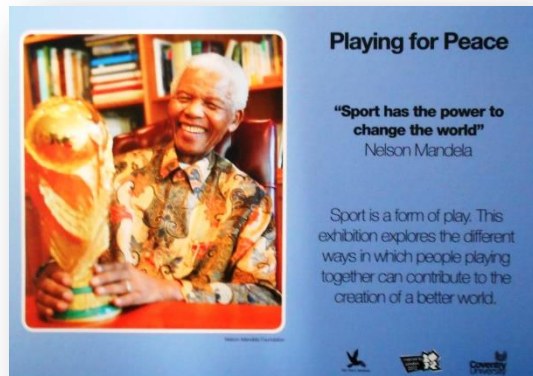

THE PEACE MUSEUM

'Peace of Yorkshire'

The Ridings in War and Peace examines the work to build a better society in the county, from early peace activists, peace societies and social reformers to the present day.

24 A2 size panels.

'Playing for Peace'

Explores how the Olympic and Paralympic Values may create a more peaceful world. It considers the role of sport in breaking down barriers between people and promoting peace by bringing different people and cultures together to discover what they have in common.

24 A2 size panels or 24 A1 size panels.
